

Students for High School Bass Fishing

The Illinois High School Activities Association has sanctioned bass fishing as a school activity and held sectionals and a state championship this year. Since the Missouri State High School Activities Association is considering high school fishing as a sanctioned activity, we would like to have the opportunity to start a fishing club and have the chance to fish for our school in a state championship tournament.